

Freelance Roles @ ICHI

Like any kind of proactive, polyamorous commune, we're always on the hunt for new freelance talent. We believe in getting the best people for the right projects and one of those people could be you, dear reader.

Do you have a very particular set of skills?

Skills acquired over a very rich career?

Skills that make you an ideal candidate for people like us?

If you look at our work now and decide the answer is no; that'll be the end of it. We will not look at you, we will not pursue you. But if the answer is yes; we will look at the relevant work you send to us, we will speak to you, and we will hire you.

Good luck.
